

04.09.2008 | AirBridgeCargo appointed new General Sales & Service Agent

General Sales & Service Agent Kales Airline Services to represent ABC.

Frankfurt, 28 August 2008 – Kales Airline Services has been named General Sales & Service Agent (GSSA) for AirBridgeCargo Airlines for Scandinavia, Austria, Italy and Belgium as from 1 August 2008.

Kales Airline Services was founded in 1994 and now has 35 offices in 21 European countries. The company, with their headoffice in Amsterdam Schiphol Airport in the Netherlands, represents more than 90 airlines in total.

”As a result of the cooperation agreement with AirBridgeCargo, we are able to offer our customers reliable services to the Russian market with its strong economic growth. We can provide an excellent product using the non-stop cargo flights operated by AirBridgeCargo to Moscow Sheremetyevo and other key destinations in the country – including the largest Russian airport, Moscow Domodedovo, or St. Petersburg Pulkovo or Krasnoyarsk Emelyanovo,” says Peter Kales, CEO of the Kales Group.

Ludwig Hamburger, Middle East & Africa Regional Director (EMEA) of AirBridgeCargo Airlines, is also convinced: “We have access to a tried and tested international network in the shape of Kales Airline Services and this will provide us with tailor-made contacts. We believe that this cooperation arrangement will enable us to increase load factors on our Russian routes to an even greater degree.”
