

AirBridgeCargo Airlines becomes Overall Carrier of the Year during the 8th Payload Asia Awards ceremony

AirBridgeCargo Airlines (ABC), part of Volga-Dnepr Group and one of the leading all-cargo carriers with specialist services, was named 'Overall Carrier of the Year' during the 8th Asia Awards ceremony which took place last Friday in Singapore.

The Payload Asia Awards is one of the most iconic industry events in the APAC region which recognizes the companies that are evolving as they expand to new markets and disrupt existing business models in view of sustainability and growth.

Oleg Novikov, Development Director, Southeast Asia for Volga-Dnepr Group, highlights: 'It is outstanding to see the ceremony being back in full swing acknowledging the best companies for their performance and contribution. AirBridgeCargo Airlines has managed to create a remarkable footprint in APAC expanding its scope of services, advancing specialist services together with forward-thinking and reliable partners and offering its customers dedicated logistics solutions under the Cargo Supermarket concept' of the whole Group'.

For the first six months of 2021, ABC has transported over 350,000 tonnes of cargo worldwide – a 30%-increase YOY - which has been ramped up by the company's wide product range with options to choose among scheduled, charter, long-term charter and ACMI operations. The carrier has been active in the market with special solutions for various industries – healthcare, high tech, e-commerce, aerospace, energy, and others tackling the supply chain disruptions in the most effective manner and keeping its services to support stable deliveries.
